Rules

1. All classes will be conducted and judged under the rules of the American Driving Society and the General Rules set forth in this Omnibus.
2. Proof of negative Coggins and proof of current rabies vaccination within one year are required to be on GMHA grounds. PLEASE INCLUDE WITH YOUR ENTRY.
3. Management reserves the right to combine, cancel or add classes as entries warrant the day of the show. Any class with fewer than 3 entries will be combined or cancelled.
4. Rules are subject to change by management due to footing/weather conditions.
5. Junior drivers under 14 must be accompanied by an adult and wear a helmet.
6. Standard track width for cones.
7. Multiple entries/twice arounds are encouraged. Scheduling is tight due to limited entries. Please keep this in mind and plan accordingly for quick horse/sleigh changes.
8. Points are accumulated on the horse. Horses will be assigned one number for the sleighing series unless the horse is competing in the Open and Novice divisions with different drivers.
9. If a horse is driven more than once in a class, points will only count on the first go.
10. A Novice horse or driver has not won three first place ribbons in an ADS or USEF sanctioned driving competition.
11. No sleigh bells. Only permitted for Currier & Ives.
12. Removal of the bridle while the horse is still hitched is elimination from the competition.
